

Store Fire-Panel, Maintenance & As-Built Documents

The DocBox

It's often important, or even required that you store documents near fire panels or other systems you've installed.

BW-DocBox

BW-DocBox (15"W x 13"H x 4" D)

includes:

- Three labels:
"Fire Alarm Documents"
"As-Built Permits"
"Test and Maintenance Documents"
- An adjustable bungee allows you to fit various sizes of binders, documents, smoke-cans, etc.
- A door bracket holds two CDs, three sets of keys and more documents
- A cam lock with two keys

BW-DocBox2 (11"W x 15"H x 4" D)

Smaller and more basic model without the door bracket for CDs and key sets. However, it does have the three labels, adjustable bungee and a lock with two keys.

BW-DocBox2

Four boxes in one!
The door can be left blank, or one of the three labels may be used.
